

QUEST 52 – Chapter 52

Who Is Jesus?

Week of December 28, 2025

KEY POINTS:

- Looking to Jesus, the Son of Man, solves every problem the church faces.
- Looking to Jesus, the slain Lamb, comforts us all in the pain we experience.
- Looking to Jesus, the conquering king, overcomes all our worries about an uncertain future.

QUESTIONS:

- After reading the essay, consider this question: How do you see Jesus?
- Read Daniel 7:9-14. What did Jesus look like before the Incarnation?
- Meditate on how you should respond to Jesus: Revelation 1:17; 5:12-13; 19:6-8..
- Discussion:
 - Do you have a picture of Jesus in your home? What does it look like?
 - As you reflect on this past year's quest, what has surprised you about Jesus?
 - Which concerns you most right now: (1) the state of your church, (2) the trials you currently face, or (3) the uncertainty of the future? Which portrait of Jesus speaks to that?
 - If Jesus returned right now, what would you wish you had done last month to prepare for his coming?
- What do you need to do to continue your quest, chasing after the heart of Jesus? Identify your next steps.
