KEY POINTS

- The Kingdom Is Revealed to the Hungry Heart – The Kingdom of God is not hidden to keep people out but revealed to those who seek Him with a sincere and open heart.
- Small Beginnings Lead to Powerful Kingdom Growth – Like a mustard seed or yeast, what seems small or insignificant carries unstoppable, transforming power over time.
- The Kingdom Gives Us a Lasting Hope – From the beginning of Scripture, God has been building a story of redemption that gives us hope, even in seasons of disappointment.
- Hope Requires Patient Trust – God’s work is often slow and unseen; it unfolds over time. Growth in His Kingdom requires waiting and trusting His timing.
- Hope Anchors Us and Overcomes Fear – Biblical hope is a confident trust in God’s plan that steadies us in uncertainty and keeps us from giving in to fear.

QUESTIONS

1. What stood out to you most about the idea that the Kingdom is revealed to those who are truly seeking? What does it look like to “truly seek”?
2. What is an example of a “small beginning” in your life that God may be growing right now?
3. Why is it often difficult to trust God when His work feels slow or hidden? What do you do to remind yourself that God is in control?
4. How do you typically respond when God’s timing doesn’t match your expectations?
5. Read Proverbs 3:5-6: “Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight.” What fears tend to compete with your hope in God? What would it look like to surrender that to Him?

LIFE APPLICATION

- Surrender Control to God – Release the need to control outcomes and trust that God is working, even when you can’t see it.
- Stay Faithful in Small Steps – Don’t overlook small acts of obedience; God uses them to bring about lasting transformation.
- Pursue God with Greater Intention – Create intentional time to seek God and lean in rather than drift into distraction.
- Replace Fear With Truth – When fear arises, remind yourself that God’s Kingdom is growing and His promises will prevail.

PRAYER

Heavenly Father,

Thank You for revealing the truth of Your Kingdom to us. Give us hearts that are hungry to seek You and eyes that can see what You are doing. Help us trust in small beginnings and hold onto hope when things feel uncertain.

Teach us to wait patiently and to resist fear, knowing that You are always at work. Anchor our hearts in Your promises and remind us that Your Kingdom is growing, even when we cannot see it.

We choose to trust You and live with hope.

In Jesus' name,

Amen.
