

CODE BREAKERS

The Rider on the White Horse

Revelation 19:11–21

READ

Main Reading: Revelation 19:11–21

Supporting Scripture: Revelation 3:20 | Matthew 3:16–17 | Matthew 17:5 | Hebrews 4:15 | Ephesians 6:17 | Matthew 24 | Luke 17 | 1 Thessalonians 4:13–18 | Matthew 25:31–46 | Romans 14:10–12 | 2 Corinthians 5:10 | Revelation 20:11–15 | 1 Peter 3:10–13

KEY POINTS

- Eternity Is on the Horizon for Everyone – Our earthly lives are temporary, and our choices about Jesus matter eternally.
- Eventually, Jesus Will Return – Jesus will come again as the conquering King, bringing God's justice and bringing evil to its end.
- The King Is Faithful and True – Jesus sees all things, holds supreme authority, and alone is qualified to judge with perfect righteousness.
- The King Conquers and Makes All Things Right – Jesus' Word will have the final victory, and no power can stand against His rule.
- Don't Despair, Don't Doubt, Don't Delay – God offers forgiveness and salvation through Jesus; respond to Him and live with confidence in His return.

QUESTIONS

1. When you think about Jesus returning as King, what feelings come up first—hope, uncertainty, urgency, or something else? What shapes that response?
2. The new life Jesus gives us changes both how we see ourselves and how we live in light of eternity. How has following Jesus transformed you, where is He still shaping you, and how should the reality of eternity influence the priorities you give your time, attention, and energy?
3. Jesus is called "Faithful and True," and Hebrews 4:15 says He understands our weaknesses yet was without sin. How does His character give you confidence to trust His judgment and leadership?
4. Since Jesus has rescued us and given us the hope of eternal life, how should that change the way we see people who do not yet know Him? What might we be overlooking when we become too focused on our own lives?
5. The sermon says Jesus' return will bring justice and finally set things right. How can this future hope keep us from becoming cynical or passive about the brokenness we see in the world today?
6. "Don't despair, don't doubt, don't delay." Which of these do you most need to hear right now, and what specific step of faith or obedience will you take in response to Jesus?

7. If Jesus returned tomorrow, who in your life would you most want to know the hope and grace found in Him? What is one loving, intentional step you can take this week to begin that conversation or invite them toward Christ?

LIFE APPLICATION

- Live with eternity in view – Revisit your priorities this week and make room for what honors Jesus and blesses others.
- Trust the King's character – When you face uncertainty or injustice, remember that Jesus is faithful, sees what is hidden, and will judge rightly.
- Respond to Jesus today – Don't put off surrender, repentance, or a needed step of obedience. Receive His grace and follow Him faithfully.
- Share the hope of the King – Look for one opportunity to encourage someone with the hope of Jesus and the promise that evil and death will not have the final word.

PRAYER

Dear Lord,

Thank You for sending Jesus to save us and for the promise that He will return as the faithful and victorious King. Help us live with eternity in view, trust Your perfect justice, and remain faithful when the world feels uncertain. Holy Spirit, give us courage to respond to Your grace today and to share the hope of Jesus with others. Strengthen us and help us to live boldly in this new life you have given us. Jesus, we love you, we honor you, and give you all the glory.

In Jesus' name, Amen.