

PICTURE PERFECT: DILIGENT MOMS BRIAN JOBE

Referenced scripture: 1 Samuel 1:1-28; 3 John 1:4

Being a mother is important!

Being a mother is difficult!

Being a mother requires diligence!

On Mother's Day, we want to honor those women who are diligently partnering with God in a great and noble task.

On Mother's Day, we need to remember to be sensitive to the fact that many women desperately want to have children but cannot. Let's not add to their burden with thoughtless remarks.

Hannah was a diligent woman who made a vow to God to raise her child for Him...and she kept it!

1. Diligent moms believe motherhood is a noble calling.

Hannah believed motherhood would be an honorable investment of the most productive years of her life and she prayed for that privilege.

2. Diligent moms fight through the disappointments of life!

When Hannah had to have strength to deal with the disappointments of her life...she went to God.

3. Diligent moms prepare their child for a life of service to God.

Hannah saw childbearing and child-raising as an opportunity to give her God glory.

Hannah shot high as a mother! She prayed that her child would serve God authentically for a lifetime.
